Why do I need a user account and how do I create it?

Short Answer

To make full use of our services (e.g. data submission, VAT-system) you need to register as GFBio user.

Detailed Answer

With your account, you can also keep track of all your requests. To create an account, please go to the sign-in page and follow the instructions.