What file formats are suitable for submission?

Short Answer

All common file formats, preferably non-proprietary formats.

Detailed Answer

In principle, all file formats can be submitted. However, for data curation and processing, it has to be accessible by available, preferably open access tools. In case the GFBio curators cannot access the data, you will be contacted. Most frequently submitted file formats are spreadsheets, csv/txt-files or images (.png, .jpeg).

See also:

- FAQ: What data types are suitable for submission (to GFBio)?
- FAQ: What is the maximum file size that can be uploaded via the online submission?