

How long does it take for my data to be available in ENA?

Short Answer

It depends on the type of data you are submitting.

Detailed Answer

For raw data: Once the broker has submitted your data to the ENA, it usually takes a few days to be released on the ENA.

For assemblies: It usually takes from a couple of days to a couple of weeks as the data are additionally processed by the NCBI.