How do I set the embargo date for my study? / How to release my data?

when wanting to change the embargo date or release the data yourself

Step-by-step guide

1. Log into our submission system
2. Open your submission
3. Change the date in the 'Embargo Date' section (bottom right) to the date of your preference.

Please do not release your data until you have received a confirmation e-mail from the GFBio informing you that your data has been deposited in the ENA.
